

Libraries Tasmania

online options for students and families

In the interest of public safety, Libraries Tasmania sites are temporarily closed to the public until further notice. Whilst our buildings may be closed, we are looking forward to staying connected with the Tasmanian public online, including during the school holidays.

Discover and explore our online services

Our staff are working hard to make sure all our online services are available for you to use from home.

- Download eBooks and audiobooks.
- Discover our online library full of engaging Australian children's stories, read by some of Australia's finest storytellers, in video format, through the Story Box Library.
- Find a wide range of magazines, comics and graphic novels to download and read – no holds, no waiting and no returns.
- Access a range of today's newspapers online through PressReader and NewsBank, or search the growing Trove collection of historic Australian newspapers from 1803 on.
- Listen to thousands of popular albums and millions of songs.
- Stream hundreds of documentaries, independent films and educational videos.
- Explore your family history and our archival and historical collections.
- And while you're at home, why not learn a new language, including Mandarin, Arabic, German or Greek?

We encourage you to take this opportunity to explore and discover what is available to you online – and it's all free!

If you're not a Libraries Tasmania member yet, you can join online for free on our website, at www.libraries.tas.gov.au. Adults and young people can each have their own library membership, which will give them access to all of our online resources.

If you want to speak to a real person for help with joining or accessing our resources, just call us on our new 'one-stop' phone number. You can reach us on (03) 6165 5600, Monday to Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Visit our website today – we're more than you think!

Stay connected

We will continue to share ideas and help you to explore our online world.
